About Aaron

Aaron Parker is an accomplished creative entrepreneur, executive IT analyst, and military veteran who bridges the gap between high-level technology and visual storytelling.

With over two decades of enterprise IT experience—currently serving as dedicated IT Executive Support for C-suite leadership at Hyster-Yale—Aaron understands the inner workings of corporate leadership, executive communication, and mission-critical operations.

Parallel to his technology career, Aaron is an award-winning professional photographer (recipient of the Best Photographer in Cleveland Award) and the founder of Parkerfotos. His creative work spans high-profile corporate events, studio portraiture, sports photography, and commercial visual production.

Before his civilian career, Aaron served for 11 years in the United States Army as a Sergeant and Crew Chief holding a SECRET Security Clearance. His background brings a unique blend of strategic discipline, technical mastery, and creative vision to every conversation on the Creative Arts Network.

About the Creative Arts Network Podcast

The Creative Arts Network is a platform dedicated to exploring the intersection of creative mastery, innovation, leadership, and craft.

We bring together world-class artists, industry leaders, performers, visual creators, and innovators to share the unedited story behind their journey—discussing creative discipline, overcoming friction, and the business behind great art.

Why Guests Love Joining the Show:

- Executive-Level Professionalism: Hosted by an enterprise IT veteran who routinely supports C-suite executives, ensuring every interview is seamless, highly polished, and respectful of your time.
- High-Production Quality: Leverages deep expertise in professional audio/video, studio lighting, and digital production technologies to ensure your brand is represented at the highest standard.
- Engaging, Insightful Dialogues: Conversations focus on deep industry insights, creative process, and career milestones rather than surface-level soundbites.

Key Credentials & Background At-a-Glance

- Creative Leadership: Award-winning commercial photographer with 15+ years managing large-scale studio productions, drone operations, and high-profile event coverage.
- Enterprise Technology: 20+ years in IT infrastructure, executive support, cloud administration (Microsoft 365, Azure AD), and telepresence systems.
- Military Service: 11-year U.S. Army Veteran (Sergeant / Crew Chief) with proven leadership over high-stakes teams.
